

7. Institutional Values and Best Practices :

- 1. Faculty members of this department are highly qualified and Nationally recognized.
- 2. Recognition of this department as a Centre for the studies of hard core Indian Philosophy.
- 3. This department is developing its recognition in the field of Applied Ethics, 20th Century Philosophy and Philosophy of culture.
- 4. Regular career counseling of the students is conducted by faculty members.
- 5. It is only department of Philosophy of Central India where UG, PG & Ph.D. Programmes run with Choice Based Credit Systems.
- 6. This department can serve the student of Rural Areas by imparting and disseminating the knowledge of classical as well as modern Indian philosophers for the integral development of their personalities rooted in Indian culture and civilization.
- 7. This department has opportunity to popularize Indian philosophy among the students of the different branches of natural sciences through developing elective courses to cultivate scientific temperament.
- 8. The department has potential to work out the decolonized understanding of classical as well as contemporary Indian philosophy.